

APPENDIX TO THE IPC POLICY ON DISCIPLINARY MEASURES FOR BREACHING THE IPC QUALIFICATION, ENTRY AND PARTICIPATION RULES.

Below is a non-inclusive list of examples of infringements that may lead to a financial sanction as described under article 3.2 of the IPC Policy on Disciplinary Measures for Breaching the IPC Qualification, Entry and Participation Rules.

Infringement / Incident	Impact
Late arrival at the Paralympic Games of an NPC having a single athlete qualified through the Universality Wild Card allocation; arriving after the designated event was concluded.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Athlete unable to be classified and unable to compete. • NPC Support Grant being misused for travel of athlete and officials. • Deprivation of a qualification slot through a Universality Wild Card for another athlete. • Additional workload and expenses for OCOG e.g. in facilitating accommodation. • Damage to Games image and protocol (NPC marching in closing ceremony despite not actually competing).
NPC withdrawing from the tournament during the Paralympic Games due to their dissatisfaction with the scheduling process for the elimination rounds.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • OCOG, IPC and the IF must contribute significant energy and resources in resolving the matter. • Impact on competition schedule with a loss of games in the tournament. • Integrity of the competition significantly compromised. • Negative media attention on the incident detract from the positive recognition and accomplishments.
NPC returning the allocated slots after the deadline, thereby institutionally disregarding the provisions of the Paralympic Games Qualification Guide despite clear directions and clarification being provided.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Significant additional workload for IPC and IF to reallocate slots immediately prior to the final entries deadline and well after many NPCs have selected their teams. • Additional work for IPC to negotiate with the OCOG as to the changes, causing a breach of the established accreditation and visa application deadlines, which again create extra work for the OCOG. • Compromises the IPC's, IF's and OCOG's abilities to delivery quality

	services to athletes. Confirmed slots are used to confirm competitions formats, finalise competition, training and classification schedules and to plan the village transition process and NPC resident unit allocations.
NPC disregarding repeated warnings by IPC on athletes failure to meet the requisite weight category to compete in Powerlifting (entered through Universality Wild Card)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Athlete unable to compete • NPC Support Grant misused for covering expenses of athlete and officials. • Deprivation of a qualification slot through the Universality Wild Card for another athlete.
NPC delegation arriving at the Paralympic Games without the single athlete that had been allocated a qualification slot through the Universality Wild Card qualification method.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • NPC Support Grant misused for covering expenses of NPC officials. • Deprivation of a qualification slot through the Universality Wild Card for another athlete. • Additional workload for IPC and OCOG in facilitating accommodation arrangements until repatriation is possible. • OCOG incurring the costs for repatriation and related administrative work.
Other infringements of NPCs (occurring at major competitions / World Championships): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • pulling out of competition just 1-4 weeks before • not showing up at the event without warning and not paying the competition fee • not respecting the deadlines set for the respective competition (entry deadlines, financial deadlines) • providing wrong entry and accreditation information 	Negative impact on <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Planning and competition Management • competition programme • broadcasting • reputation and worldwide recognition • possibility for other athletes' to compete • LOC overall budget (accommodation, meals, transportation)