

Bogota D.C., February 4th, 2021

COMMUNICATION 001 PARAPOWORLD LIFTING WORLD CUP BOGOTA 2021

Biosafety standards

.1. We inform to all NPC's participating in the Parapowerlifting World Cup Bogota 2021, that by order of the Colombian health authorities, all participants upon arriving in Bogotá must stay in single room in the first night until have the negative result of the PCR test for COVID-19, this result will be delivered within 24 hours after taking the sample. With the negative result, those who have requested double rooms will be able to access them.

2. Setting dates: Understanding that makes a budget adjustment as provided for each of its delegations, the dates for the event will be as follows:

Team Arrival Dates	1 March 2021
International Classification	3 - 4 March 2021
Technical Meeting	4 March 2021
Competition Dates	5, 6, 7 March 2021
Team Departures	8 March 2021

3. Accommodation format: Attached to this communication you will find the accommodation format so that you can make the adjustments according to the new dates and include the single room (individual Covid room).

We ask you to send this form no later than February 7th. Later they will receive the invoice to be able to make their payment. It is important that they take this information into account when returning to their countries, understanding that some countries have requested different dates due to flight availability.

4. Health policies and / or assistance card: We remind all NPCs that all participants must have policies and / or assistance cards that include Covid -19 coverage.

Keep in mind upon arrival in Bogotá, Colombia:

- In the city of Bogotá, all kinds of restrictions related to the health emergency were lifted as of February 3, in addition, the event is within the exceptions given by the national government.

- The national government establishes that all travelers must present the negative PCR test for Covid 19 that has been taken a maximum of 96 hours before taking the flight to the El Dorado airport Bogotá - Colombia. This test must be taken in the country of origin and each delegation will be responsible for it and present it to the organization, in case of not presenting it or presenting a positive result, they must enter preventive and mandatory isolation for 14 days.
- By order of the Colombian authorities, all travelers entering or leaving Colombia must register through the Check-mig app, this registration must be presented to the Colombian migration authorities upon arrival and departure from the country.
<https://apps.migracioncolombia.gov.co/pre-registro/public/preregistro.jsf>

Transport

- The Colombian Paralympic Committee will be in charge of the logistics of the transport and necessary displacements at the arrival and departure of each of the airport - hotel - airport delegations.
- Transportation will be exclusive and will be used at 50% of the vehicle's capacity to guarantee social distancing.
- The company contracted to transport the delegations has its biosecurity protocols and documents in compliance with the current regulations required by the national government.

In the place of accommodation and competition:

- All para-athletes, coaches, delegates and other participants other participants who are part of the delegations, upon arrival at the hotel will be placed in single rooms.
- All para-athletes, coaches, delegates and other participants other participants who are part of the delegations will have the PCR test performed on the day of arrival at the Hilton Bogotá Hotel, according to their arrival itinerary and must remain in their room until the Negative PCR test result, results will take a maximum of 24 hours.
- Positive cases will remain in quarantine in individual rooms, this cost will be charged to each country.
- Body temperature will be taken permanently in the Hotel and place of competition.
- The procedures for taking the PCR tests for Covid-19 will be done at the hotel.
- On the sixth day after arrival, the PCR test for Covid-19 will be repeated to all delegations and members of the organization, this test will be carried out as a requirement to leave Colombia for their countries of origin no more than 48 hours before of the flight or according to the entry requirements of each country.

- All facilities and transportation will be disinfected regularly. The delegations must make correct use and final disposal of the biological waste generated during their stay according to the Hotel rules.
- The face mask is always mandatory, except for athletes on the competition stage. On the recommendation of the Colombian national government, the facial mask must be disposable surgical and not in cloth.
- Each delegation will be responsible for having all the biosecurity elements for personal use and what is necessary for cleaning and disinfecting them. (Face mask and hand disinfection)
- The local organizing committee is not responsible for any costs resulting from positive cases such as change of flight or hotel accommodation, or quarantine.
- All participants must complete the consent form to participate in the competition and send it back to the organizing committee.
- All participants must comply with the rules and regulations established by the Ministry of Health and Ministry of Sports of Colombia in Covid19.
- The event will not have spectators, everything will be broadcast through the official pages of the Colombian Paralympic Committee.

NOTE: Days before the event, each NPC will have a virtual form in which the informed consent information, policy and / or attendance card and the result of the PCR test for COVID-19 must be uploaded. They will also receive a biosafety protocol management instruction during the event.

Cordially,

JULIO CESAR AVILA SARRIA
President
Colombian Paralympic Committee

