About Madeira Island

Madeira, an autonomous region of Portugal, is an archipelago comprising 4 islands of the northwest coast of Africa. It is known for its namesake wine and warm subtropical climate. The main island of Madeira is volcanic, green and rugged, with high cliffs, pebbly beaches and settlements on deltas of the Fajã River.

Funchal is the capital and it has botanic gardens and is known for its harbor and a large New Year's fireworks show.

Madeira Island is one of Europe's most beautiful travel locations with many thousands of tourists returning year after year.

Why?

It offers not only an all year round summer climate, as well as, wonderful fauna and flora, but it is also virtually crime-free and one of the safest holiday destinations in the world!

Accommodation Guide

For the World Para Swimming European Open Championships, Madeira 2020, the Portuguese Swimming Federation selected the accommodation options that best serve the requirements for the competition:

accessibility for the athletes,

proximity to the competition venue;

central location in the city providing the easy access and transportation for all the involved.

All the selected hotels are 4* or 5* and provide a high level of service with good facilities including free Wi-Fi and adaptive bedrooms.

The hotels have also been selected to allow for a simplified and unified transport system from the city centre to the training and competition venue.
