

WPIH ATHLETE'S COMMITTEE NOMINEE

PROFILE

Name:
Stacey Quirk

NPC:
GBR

Nominee:
Athlete Committee Member

Stacey Quirk is eager to join the Athletes' Committee, confident that her background and experiences will bring value to the role. As a multi-sport para athlete, she has demonstrated strong advocacy skills and leadership qualities throughout her career.

Stacey's passion lies in growing women's participation in the sport. Leveraging her para ice hockey connections, she successfully engaged several European female athletes and club teams, connecting them with WPIH representatives and supporting them in securing equipment for the 2023 Women's World Challenge.

As an athlete involved in both the women's and mixed international GB programs, Stacey brings a unique perspective. The self-funded nature of the GB programs offers valuable insights. Stacey is excited to contribute her diverse experiences to the Athletes' Committee and appreciates the opportunity to be considered.