

WPIH SPORT COMMITTEE NOMINEE

BIOGRAPHY

Name:

Chengyuan LIU

NPC:

China

Nominee:

Sport Committee Member

With nearly two decades of experience in Paralympic sports in China, Chengyuan LIU has dedicated over eight years to the development of para ice hockey, making her a seasoned expert in the sport's rules and intricacies.

Chengyuan LIU is eager to join the WPIH Sport Committee to engage in meaningful discussions, exchanging opinions and ideas with fellow committee members. Her goal is to make significant contributions to the WPIH and the broader para ice hockey community.

She has served as a deputy technical representative in domestic para ice hockey championships, gaining invaluable expertise in organizing and managing sports events. Her hands-on involvement equips her with the necessary skills to contribute effectively to the Sport Committee's work.

With a deep understanding of sports for persons with disabilities, Chengyuan's professional knowledge and experience wishes to support the World Para Ice Hockey (WPIH) in its promotion and development initiatives. Her contributions will extend beyond China, as she can apply her skills and share the Chinese experience in disability sports to benefit the global community.
