

WPIH SPORT COMMITTEE NOMINEE

BIOGRAPHY

Name:

Gregor Baumgartner

NPC:

Austria

Nominee:

Sport Committee chairperson or member

Gregor Baumgartner is a highly accomplished and dedicated professional in the field of ice hockey. With extensive experience in coaching, sports operations, and broadcasting, he is an ideal candidate for the World Para Ice Hockey Sport Committee.

Baumgartner's background includes roles as a Sports Director, Coach, and Technical Delegate, showcasing his profound understanding of the sport and his ability to drive growth and development. Currently serving as the Sports Director and Coach of the Traunsee Sharks Gmunden, he is committed to the success of teams and players at both local and international levels.

In leadership positions such as General Manager of the Steinbach Black Wings Linz and Director of Player Development for the Austrian Ice Hockey Federation, Baumgartner has demonstrated strategic thinking, organizational prowess, and effective collaboration with diverse stakeholders.

With certifications in coaching and a solid educational background, including an MBA degree in Sport and Event Management, Baumgartner possesses the qualifications to contribute to the strategic direction and development of para ice hockey.