New Delhi

New Delhi, the vibrant capital of India, is a city where ancient history and modern progress coexist. As the nation's political, cultural, and economic hub, it is home to iconic landmarks such as the Red Fort, Qutub Minar, India Gate, and the Lotus Temple, showcasing its rich heritage and cultural diversity.

The city also boasts three UNESCO World Heritage Sites: Humayun's Tomb, Qutub Minar Complex, and the Red Fort Complex, which highlight its historical significance and architectural brilliance, reflecting its Mughal past and India's cultural richness.

The weather in New Delhi is diverse, with March marking the transition to spring. Pleasant temperatures and clear skies make it an ideal time for sightseeing, while the city's gardens provide peaceful retreats amidst its busy streets.

New Delhi contrasts modernity with history, where gleaming skyscrapers sit alongside the charm of Old Delhi. The city's blend of business districts, traditional markets, and cultural heritage creates a unique and vibrant atmosphere.

Classifications

The New Delhi 2025 will offer classification opportunities in the days prior to the start of the competition. International Classification panels will be available for the following impairments:

- VI – Visual Impairment
- II – Intellectual Impairment
- PI – Physical Impairment

An athlete will only be allowed to undergo classification if he or she:

- Has an active World Para Athletics active license;
- Has been entered into the Recognised Competition where International Classification is to take place;
- Has uploaded a Medical Diagnostics Form (MDF), for athletes with PI or VI impairment to SDMS within the specified deadlines.

World Para Athletics aims to schedule all athletes with New (N) and Review (R) sport class status for classification. Should there be more athletes than the available slots on the schedule, WPA will allocate classification slots to NPCs.

Athletes who require classification must arrive prior to the start of classification. Therefore, they need to purchase the Gold package.

Athletes scheduled for classification should take note of the Athlete Evaluation Requirements of the World Para Athletics Classification Rules and Regulations.

All NPC/NF delegations must comply with the World Para Athletics Classification Rules and Regulations.

For any queries or clarifications, please contact World Para Athletics info@worldparaathletics.org
