

Korea: 10 facts for the Sochi 2014 Paralympics

With the PyeonChang 2018 Paralympic Winter Games just four years away, expect to see a strengthened Korean team in Sochi.

- Korea have won two medals at the Paralympic Winter Games, both silver in curling and alpine skiing.
- Han Sang Min became the first Korean to claim a medal, when he took silver in giant slalom LW12 in 2002.
- Korea's other silver medal was won by their curling team in 2010.
- Korea first competed in the Paralympic Winter Games in 1992 and have since featured at all editions.
- In Sochi, Korean ice sledge hockey player Seung-Hwan Jung will be One to Watch.
- They have won 306 medals at the Paralympic Summer Games: 119 gold, 95 silver, 92 bronze.
- Korea have won most of their medals in table tennis (76) and most gold medals in athletics (68).
- Lee Hae Gon has won the most gold medals for Korea: six medals in men's table tennis.
- Kim Kyung Mook leads all Korean athletes with 12 total medals (four gold, two silver, six bronze), also in men's table tennis.
