

IPC Alpine Skiing Competitions Season 2014/2015

The athletes who have achieved qualification criteria on 1 July 2014, maintain the qualification for the entire competition season.

1. IPC Alpine Skiing World Cups

For Downhill:

- Men must be at 100 IPCAS points or less from the Downhill IPCAS list
- Women must be at 120 IPCAS points or less from the Downhill IPCAS list

For Super-G:

- Men must be at 120 IPCAS points or less from the Super-G IPCAS list
- Women must be at 140 IPCAS points or less from the Super-G IPCAS list

For Super-Combined

- Men must be at 120 IPCAS points or less from the Super-Combined IPCAS list
- Women must be at 140 IPCAS points or less from the Super-Combined IPCAS list

For Giant Slalom

- Men must be at 120 IPCAS points or less in the GS IPCAS point list
- Women must be at 140 IPCAS points or less in the GS IPCAS point list

For Slalom

- Men must be at 120 IPCAS points or less in the SL IPCAS point list
- Women must be at 140 IPCAS points or less in the SL IPCAS point list

2. IPC Alpine Skiing European Cups and NORAMS

IPCAS European Cups will have a maximum field size of 140 athletes (men and women together per discipline).

For Downhill, Super-G and Super Combined:

- Men must be at 240 IPCAS points or less from the Downhill or Super-G, or Super-Combined IPCAS point lists
- Women must be at 280 IPCAS points or less from the Downhill or Super-G, or Super-Combined IPCAS point lists

For Giant Slalom

- Men must be at 220 IPCAS points or less in the GS IPCAS point list
- Women must be at 240 IPCAS points or less in the GS IPCAS point list

For Slalom

- Men must be at 220 IPCAS points or less in the SL IPCAS point list
- Women must be at 240 IPCAS points or less in the SL IPCAS point list