1 Introduction

The IPC Academy is a partnership between the IPC and the World Academy of Sport and is the education division of the IPC. The Academy brings individuals together to improve educational standards of sport throughout the Paralympic Movement and ensures that executives, administrators and officials have an educational centre, providing world class courses.

World Para Swimming (WPS) has worked with the IPC Academy in recent years to develop a consistent education pathway for those wishing to become involved in World Para Swimming whether it is at the local club or through to international competitions. This includes education courses for technical officials, classifiers and coaches. Courses can be delivered in the many countries of the IPC membership and in a number of languages.

We encourage National Paralympic Committees (NPCs) to engage with the learning pathways, adopt them into development plans, deliver courses locally in order to accredit people, and provide opportunities for these individuals to be involved in the delivery of sport locally. Through this process World Para Swimming will be able to effectively assist NPCs to develop the sport in those countries that embrace these learning pathways and resources.

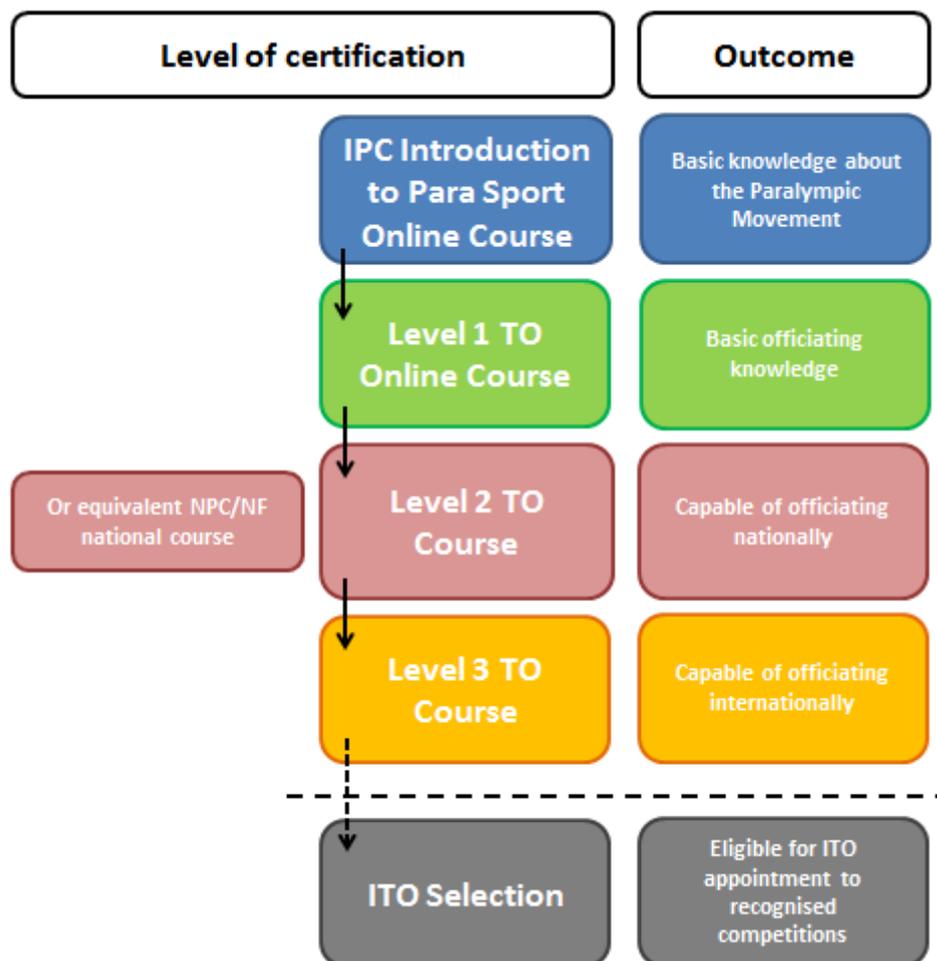

This document outlines the pathway for individuals interested in Para swimming technical officiating and outlines candidate qualification criteria and course outcomes of the various levels of courses offered by World Para Swimming.
