

Excite the world and become a Communications Intern at the IPC!

The International Paralympic Committee (IPC) is the global governing body of the Paralympic Movement. The IPC supervises the organisation of the Summer and Winter Paralympic Games, and serves as International Federation for 10 sports.

The IPC is committed to enabling Para athletes to achieve sporting excellence and to developing sport opportunities for all persons with impairment from the beginner to elite level. In addition, the IPC aims to promote the Paralympic values, which include courage, determination, inspiration and equality.

Are you...

- interested in social values and the Paralympic Movement?
- familiar with Microsoft Office applications?
- ready to jump at the chance to intern at an international sports organisation in a multi-cultural environment?

If you are, apply for this incredible chance to be a communications intern in a passionate, award-winning communications and PR team and help the International Paralympic Committee to enable Para athletes to achieve sporting excellence and inspire and excite the world!

The IPC is looking to recruit a communications intern to help build the online historical results archive for all Games held in the Americas, including Parapan American Games, Youth Parapan American Games, Para South American Games and Para Central American Games.

University students with a mandatory internship as per university's study regulations are encouraged to apply for this position.

Although the position is unpaid, the experience you will receive is invaluable and will look outstanding on any curriculum vitae or resume.

These are our requirements:

- Have keen attention to detail.
- Have a general understanding and interest in international sport, sport rules, competitions and tournament structures (especially Olympic and/or Paralympic sports).
- Possess a good knowledge of Microsoft Office applications (example: Excel)
- Good written and spoken level of English.
- Knowledge of Spanish is a plus.
- Knowledge of databases is a plus.

Further information:

- The internship is set to be 3 months long with a start date from 13 August 2018.
- The internship is set in Bonn, Germany, but reaching worldwide due to our co-operation with international stakeholders.
- The IPC does not offer any travel, housing or relocation allowance, but is available to support you organisationally in all necessary steps.

If you are interested and meet the requirements, send in your CV and cover letter (as pdf in English) by 08 July 2018 to the IPC's Human Resources Senior Manager @ alexandra.schnurr@paralympic.org.

We especially encourage individuals with impairments to apply, whom we are ready to support in finding accessible accommodation or any other important matters.

If you have any further questions, do not hesitate to contact us or see detailed information on the IPC and the Paralympic Movement on our website at www.paralympic.org.

We are looking forward to your application!
